

PhillyGayCalendar's BOYS OF SUMMER Party Celebrates 6th Year

Thursday, July 02, 2009, PHILADELPHIA - PhillyGayCalendar.com is excited to announce details of its sixth annual Boys of Summer Party Fund Raiser, the highlight of the summer season for Philadelphia's LGBT community. The party features music, dancing, drink specials, prizes, and show-stopping performances. The event will be held at Pure Nightclub at 1221 St. James St. (near 13th and Locust streets) on Friday, August 14, from at 9 p.m. to 3:30 a.m.

This year, Boys of Summer welcomes adult-entertainer-turned-pop-star Colton Ford. Ford, a legend in the gay adult film industry, released his first album Tug of War in 2008 and is now performing to support his latest effort Under the Covers. Under the Covers offers Ford's reinterpretation of several well-known tracks, including Fleetwood Mac's "Dreams," REM's "Losing My Religion," Britney Spears' "Trouble," Nirvana's "Lithium," Alicia Keyes', "No One," Babyface's "It's No Crime," and others.

Admission to Boys of Summer is $15, but those who arrive in a swimsuit will enter for only $12. Once inside, partygoers will enjoy $1 shots and $2 pink drinks until 11 p.m. As usual, Philly's own DJ Carl Michaels provides the beats, while guests mingle with over three dozen "shot boys" wearing nothing but aussieBum swim suits and their smiles. Also, the more audacious guests can enter the annual Hot Body Contest for a chance at recognition and prizes: the first place winner will receive tickets to Pink's October 3 show at the Wachovia Center plus $100 in cash; the second place winner will receive $100 in cash; the third place winner will receive $100 in cash; and runners-up will receive some fun prizes and giveaways.

Boys of Summer is presented by PhillyGayCalendar.com. Sponsors include aussieBum, Manhunt.net, Q102.1 FM, 106.1 FM, Pride Radio, Media sponsors include the Sapphire Fund, Studio Andraccio, TwistedLife.com, and NightlifeGay.com.
